SIGSBEE IS READY.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Captain Sigsbee, arrived to Washington from Havans today. The captain's neighborn profusely decorated his residence with flags. Many of his friends sent large bouquets as an expression of friendship and esteem. At 10:30 the captain went to the navy department to report. He would be ready, he said, as soon as he could get his wardrobe replenished, to go anywhere or perform any duty that might be given him.

THEIR HONOR AND DIGNITY

MADRID, March 29—Public opinion is quieted by the belief that the difficulties between Spain and the United States will be arranged in a friendly manner. Newspapers place great stress upon the conference between General Woodford, United States minister, and Senor Sagasta, premier, to take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, expressing the belief that it will have important pacific results. Spanish newspapers say the government of Spain has decided to do everything possible to avoid war, if the honor and dignity of Spain are not affected.

CLIMATIC REASONS.

WASHINGTON, March 29. -- By direction of Gen. Miles, orders were issued today for the transfer of the twenty-fifth regiment of infantry to Dry Tortugas. The fact that this regiment is made up of colored troops is regarded as showing the purpose of the war department to concentrate the colored department to concentrate the colored troops in the vicinity of Cuba, negroes being better able to withstand the Cuban climate than white men. The Twenty-fifth regiment has been located at Forts Missoula, Assiniboine and Harris, Montana, for eighteen years.

nearly every member of congress, recites the history of the case of Captain Hart, and calls attention to the fact that the presiding judge of the circuit court, to which tribunal the case was appealed, filed a dissenting opinion, holding that the evidence did not show the expedition to be a military expedition, or an unlawful enterprise; and further, that the evidence did not show that Captain Hart had knowledge that the expedition was unlawful. Notwithstanding the most urgent requests, however, it is not considered probable that the president will take immediate action in the matter, in view of the present critical condition of affairs and of the further fact that a pardon at this juncture, were he disposed to grant it, might complicate the situation.

FACTS ABOUT HEALTH

It is Easy to Keep Well If We Know How-Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food. The blood is employed to earry nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. No medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is because it is the one true blood purifier. Hundreds of people are alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine by thousands.
